

In the good Providence of God another year has passed, and its memories and its fruits have been gathered in. Towards the close of it he has showered innumerable mercies upon us, and we have received from the North many a vote that will not vote for a republican organization.

These, with the nicely southern members, make a handsome majority in the House. The republicans, at the outside, cannot count more than one hundred and thirteen members, and two hundred and thirty-six—Nine of yesterday.

The New must “amend its declaration.” And ready “the black republicans proper” have elected one hundred and five members of the next House. They will probably certainly elect seven, and very possibly eleven more, in the States of New Hampshire, Connecticut, Rhode Island and Minnesota, which vote next year. There are, besides, Mr. HICKMAN of Pennsylvania, Messrs. HASKIN and CLARK of New York, and Messrs. ADAMS and RIGGS of New Jersey who were elected by the Opposition, and will doubtless vote with the Opposition. We should like to see the next meet up the thirty-three democrats from the North, who will unite with the nicely Southern members in effecting an organization.

ORGANIZATION OF DACOTAH TERRITORY.—The people of Dakotah have at last effected an independent territorial organization of their territory. State officers have been appointed, a legislative convention, laws passed, &c., and the Minnesota code of 1857 adopted. This temporary organization is to continue in full force until Congress shall see fit to give them the usual more permanent form of territorial government. The election was held in due form. Nine members were returned to the House, and five to the Council, and on the 6th of October the first Legislative Assembly of Dakotah Territory met at Sioux Falls.

Before they convened in their hall, the stars and stripes were unfurled from a flagstaff in front of the building used as a capitol, and saluted by thirteen volleys, fired by the “Dakotah Boys,” and cheered upon cheer by those who had assembled to witness the inauguration of their territory.

CHARLES GIFFORD, Secy.

Milwaukee, November 11.

From the N.Y. Tribune, Nov. 8.
The New House of Representatives.

Thus far, eighteen States have chosen Members of the new House of Representatives, with the following results:

Add the vote for Jones (Straight American) in the first district, and it makes the opposition majority in the State twice thousand.

Total,	247	63	63	63

Dunn's majority for Congress 63. Mansfield, Republican, for Assembly 210.

DARK SPOTS.—Not a town in either Rock or Walworth counties gives a Democratic majority. We go for nothing that is not by them, and let them run it—Medianor Argus.

Were the enlightened suggestion of the Argus carried out, the State in question would be the most intelligent, the most thrifty, the most orderly and the best governed in the West. But then Wisconsin would lose two of its brightest men.

MORE AGITATION.—The Washington Union of Saturday, has a leader on “The Extracting question of 1848 revisited in the Democratic party in 1858” and foreshadowing the exclusion of Douglas and his adherents from the Charlton Convention in 1860.

It may turn out that it will be the Washington Union and the adherents of the BUCHANAN Administration who will be excluded from the Charlton Convention in the extent, but wholly in keeping with the course usually pursued by that enlightened.

The New, it will be remarked, does not deny and pitiful a tick as to quarter one of the republicans on us to give us a clear idea of the character of our citizens, who have been residents of the State from ten to twenty years, whose applications have been on file in the Navy Department for more than twelve years with endorsements from the most prominent men in the navy, and who, in every way, characters are beyond reproach, and with abilities unclouded, it is beneath the dignity of a man of honor, and more especially one holding a seat in the Cabinet of this great Republic. Such conduct, if true, should receive the censure and condemnation of every man who is not a traitor to his country, it changes to this State. We are also informed that he has not even been in the State long enough to gain a residence, and more likely never will.

If Secretary Toucey has been guilty of so small and pitiful a tick as to quarter one of the republicans on us to give us a clear idea of the character of our citizens, who have been residents of the State from ten to twenty years, whose applications have been on file in the Navy Department for more than twelve years with endorsements from the most prominent men in the navy, and who, in every way, characters are beyond reproach, and with abilities unclouded, it is beneath the dignity of a man of honor, and more especially one holding a seat in the Cabinet of this great Republic. Such conduct, if true, should receive the censure and condemnation of every man who is not a traitor to his country, it changes to this State. We are also informed that he has not even been in the State long enough to gain a residence, and more likely never will.

The New replies to this, by charging the statement to “sheerheads” and “bravoes” who were disappointed in not obtaining the office themselves, and thus defends the action of Secretary Toucey.

Certainly, we can do nothing “unjust” in the action of Secretary, and consider the selection of Mr. Pierce an excellent one. He has for some time been a resident of this State, and is connected with one of the best law firms in Milwaukee. He is an intelligent, honest and capable man for the position assigned him, with a decided sense of justice, a desire of doing what is right and credit. The Wisconsin's allusion to the relationship existing between Secretary Toucey and Mr. Pierce, and the insinuation that the latter was “colonized here to take the appointment” are wholly and despicable in the extreme, but wholly in keeping with the course usually pursued by that enlightened.
